

PROJECTS ►

INCREDIBLE SOUND ACCURACY

CONCERT HALL

Amadeo Roldan Theatre

Havana, Cuba, 2007

The island of Cuba has a big concert hall.

Description

With no amplification, the sound frequencies generated by the instruments are literally propelled to the furthest balcony rows with an incredible vitality and sound accuracy. The hall is air conditioned by convection from each seat in order to eliminate the noise generated by air friction in traditional air conditioning ducts.

Print

Share

← Previous

Next →

Expertise

Audio
Lighting

Mandate

Project management and technical supervision
Installation
Programming and calibration

