THE STORY OF THE ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE

EXHIBITION AND MULTIMEDIA SHOW

RCMP Heritage Centre

Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, 2007

Through an exhibition that spans 10,000 square feet, the center of the RCMP Heritage tells the story of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Through impressive scenery and multimedia technology, the visitor discovers the role played by the police in the country's development.

Description

In addition to the main exhibition, the Centre proposes in his theater of 124 seats a multimedia show of 27 minutes entitled "Tour of Duty", presented by a virtual host in 3D.
